

B - INSTRUCTIONS FOR Daughters who have applied for a previous scholarship

1. Secure an application form from your Bethel Guardian.
2. Complete the application.
3. Include a brief summary of your personal goals and financial situation.

These are to be mailed to Mom Darline Goeman, 9382 Towering Oaks Drive, Comstock Park, MI 49321 no later than April 15, 2017.

Additional information due to Mom Darline Goeman, postmarked by May 31, 2017 includes:

A. One letter of character reference. This may be from an employer, neighbor, teacher, or minister. It must be written by someone different from your previous references. It may not be written by a relative or peer.

B. Transcript of all college classes completed and grades received for those classes with GPA listed. (If your college or technical school uses a non-traditional grading system, please provide the committee with information on the system.)

Only one Bethel Executive Council Recommendation is required to be in your file. This should be in your file from your first application.

It is the Daughter's Responsibility to see that Mom Goeman receives all completed forms. It is recommended that the applicant provide the Council, school, and all references with stamped envelopes addressed to: Darline Goeman
